It is reported that a violation of the fish and game law was committed in Montpelier on Wednesday. A large bass, that weighed six pounds, became stranded in shallow water by the rise in the river. A certain man, according to the story that is current, clubbed the fish to death and removed it from the water.

The water flowed over the dam at the Berlin pond outlet last Sunday night for the first time in eight months, which showed the water in the pond had at last reached the normal level. The saw mill which is run only when the water is running to waste out at the outlet is now in operation by Joseph Horton.

Up to the hour of closing last evening City Clerk Mackay had issued 200 dog licenses, or about the same number as was issued up to the same date last year. Today is the last opportunity to pay your dog tax and the city clerk's office will be open until 8 o'clock this evening. The total number of licenses issued last year was 322. It is expected it will exceed that number this year.

A small party of friends were entertained most delightfully by Miss Hortense Smith last evening. It was the chief amusement, although other games and music contributed their share to the evening's enjoyment. Refreshments, consisting of fruit punch, wafers, ice cream, sandwiches and nuts, were served, after which the members of the party indulged in cracking April 1 jokes. They went to their homes about 1 o'clock after having voted Miss Smith a charming hostess.

Considerable excitement was stirred up on Main street about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when a young horse of R. M. Harvey of Montpelier ran away. Mr. Harvey was leading the horse behind his team and was coming down Washington street, when a dog ran at the horse which pulled away from Mr. Harvey and started on a wild run onto Main street to Depot square, where it turned and ran down the M. & W. tracks to Granite street, and then back onto North Main street, where it was caught by some men working on the lot. Two ladies who were crossing the street from the National bank narrowly escaped being knocked down by the horse.

The Daylight Store

Two Birds With One Stone!
Do Your Shopping and Listen to the Music!

We have made arrangements with Gilbertson's Orchestra to give a musical concert in our store, on the second floor, Saturday evening of this week, from 7 until 8:30 o'clock. You can combine business with pleasure—listen to the music and at the same time be doing your Easter shopping. (You are welcome to this concert if you do not do your shopping here.)

Corset Department.

Our Corset business a little more than doubles last year. You ask the reason. The most of our business has been on the Royal Worcester Corset.

We get the best makes and keep them up. Here are our makes: The Royal Worcester, the R. and G., the Flexibone and the Ferris Waists. Here are four makes that are up to the best that money will buy. The Corset that we are to have a sale on for the next four days is THE FLEXIBONE. Here is the Flexibone Moulded Corset, up to the best in the land, made of French cantile, like cut. Has both front and side supporters, dip hips, wide lace trimming with silk bow. Have you seen its equal for less than $1.50? This Corset is a leader at only $1.00.

Glove Department.

We have in our Glove Department for the Easter trade one of the best lines of Gloves ever shown in Barre. The new ideas are:

A Lace Back Silk Glove, in all colors and blacks, at 50c.

An extra quality of Silk Gloves, in white and black, with double finger tips, the best that we have ever seen for the price, 50c per pair.

Kid Gloves, the warranted kind, in all colors, at $1.00.

A real Deer Skin Mocha Glove that sells in most cities for from $1.25 to $1.35. Here at $1.00 per pair.

The New Idea is a genuine Kid Glove that will wash with soap and water and come out perfect. It is the best Glove that you ever bought for the price if you don't want to wash it. Price, $1.50 per pair.

Garment Department.

In our Garment Department you will find only the very latest styles. We are in touch with the latest that there is. This will be a great season for traveling garments. The St. Louis Fair will make our statement true. We are ready to take care of every garment want. You can buy as good as you want. If it is a good garment at a small price we can please you. We shall make a specialty of traveling garments.

Ask to see traveling garments at $7.75, $10.00 and $12.50 that are specials.

Ask to see a beautiful line of Silk Coats that will stand traveling and come home as good as new.

Ask to see Traveling Suits with round skirts, made to stand a lot of grief, for $12.50 and $15.00.

Ask to see Walking Skirts in all wool that we are selling at $3.98.

Ask to see our traveling India Silk Waists that will look like new when washed for $2.98 and $3.98. Special.
